IMPORTANT NOTICE

This document is fictional sample content created solely to develop and test a Retrieval-Augmented Generation (RAG) chatbot. It is not an approved company procedure, machine-specific instruction, legal policy, or substitute for manufacturer documentation, site risk assessments, qualified supervision, or applicable laws. Do not use it to operate, repair, inspect, or service real equipment.

Purpose

Explain the sample company's attendance reporting, leave request, approval, and record-correction process.

Document control

The document owner is responsible for review and controlled distribution in a real organization. For this training dataset, version 1.0 is fixed and all names, policies, workflows, and examples are fictional.

1. Policy status and applicability

• This is fictional sample policy content created for RAG software testing. It is not a real employment contract or legally validated HR policy.

• The policy applies to employees of Apex Precision Manufacturing Pvt. Ltd. in the fictional training scenario, subject to local employment law and approved employment terms.

2. Working schedules and attendance

• Department schedules and shift timings are communicated by the department manager and HR.

• Employees must record attendance using the company-approved attendance system.

• If an employee cannot attend a scheduled shift, they should notify their supervisor as early as practicable and follow the absence reporting process.

3. Leave request process

• Submit planned leave through the designated HR system or approved form before the intended leave date.

• Include leave dates, leave category, and handover arrangements where relevant.

• The manager reviews staffing and operational coverage; HR verifies the applicable leave balance and policy requirements.

• Leave is approved only after confirmation through the official company process.

4. Unplanned absence

• Notify the supervisor and HR using the published contact procedure as soon as reasonably possible.

• Provide supporting documents only where required by the applicable policy or law, and submit them through the approved confidential channel.

• HR records the absence category after reviewing the applicable rules.

5. Attendance corrections

• Report missed punches or incorrect attendance entries to the supervisor or HR through the approved correction process.

• Include the date, shift, and explanation; corrections require authorized review and an audit trail.

• Employees must not record attendance on behalf of another person.

6. Questions and escalation

• For leave balance, eligibility, payroll impact, or exceptions, contact HR because entitlements depend on the current approved policy and individual employment terms.

• If a request is urgent or disputed, follow the HR escalation channel.

7. Records

• Leave request; approval record; attendance correction request; shift roster; HR case record, maintained with appropriate confidentiality.
